

Tasman and Forestier Peninsula Planning Forum

Hear from the Planning Matters Alliance Tasmania (PMAT) on how the Liberal Government's proposed statewide planning scheme will impact the lives of residents of the Tasman and Forestier Peninsula area, and Tasmania more broadly.

Following the speakers there will be a panel discussion and Q and A session from the audience.
Hosted by Tasman Peninsula Marine Protection.

7pm - Wednesday 14 February 2018
Eaglehawk Neck Community Hall,
Arthur Hwy, Eaglehawk Neck

Speakers:

Local speaker from Tasman Peninsula Marine Protection

Sophie Underwood, Co-ordinator, Planning Matters Alliance Tasmania

Vica Bayley, Tasmanian Campaign Manager,
The Wilderness Society (Tasmania) Inc.

Event contact

Sophie 0407 501 999

sophie_underwood@hotmail.com

The Planning Matters Alliance Tasmania (PMAT) is a growing network of over 50 community groups from across Tasmania campaigning for a strategic, sustainable and integrated planning system which will serve to protect the values that make Tasmania such a special place to live and visit.

facebook/planningmatterstas

To contact PMAT or to find out more visit www.planningmatterstas.org.au