

STATE GOVERNMENT ELECTION CANDIDATE SURVEY 2024 RESULTS

PLANNING MATTERS ALLIANCE TASMANIA SURVEY (PMAT)

A State election is being held on 23 March 2024 for all House of Assembly seats. Of the 167 candidates announced by the Tasmanian Electoral Commission, PMAT managed to obtain email contact details for 160. The remainder did not have email details provided. Only 26 candidates completed the survey. The survey was open from Sunday 3 March 2024 until midnight Saturday 9 March 2024. SEE FURTHER NOTES BELOW

Three substantive questions (Questions 5, 6 and 7) were asked of candidates.

Party	Candidate		Question 5 The Tasmanian Liberal Government is proposing the introduction of Development Assessment Panels (DAPs) that take development assessment and approval for projects on urban/private and public/reserve land away from local Councils. The proposals would also remove merits-based planning appeals. Do you support Development Assessment Panels?	Question 6 Do you believe that we should have an improved development assessment process for developments on reserved/public land?	Question 7 Should certain types of development be prohibited on reserved land such as in our World Heritage Areas and National Parks?
